A.R.E. STUDY GROUPS

Study groups are your personal venture inward, enabling you to:

- Work with Spirit
- Explore your intuition in a safe way
- Practice listening “soul to soul”
- Remember to love and appreciate every moment of your life
- Spend time with like-minded people

The first group began with Edgar Cayce in 1931. That gathering resulted in two books, Search for God Book I and Book II, containing 12 lessons on spiritual and personal growth. Today, they are the basic study material of groups worldwide. Our region has the longest continually meeting group in New England! For locations, details, Q&As, and more see www.ARE-northeast.org/boston or call the MA study group coordinator, Patty McCarthy, at 1-781-878-1974.
